My dear people,

All over the world this week, there are Corpus Christi processions. In traditionally Catholic countries this involves the whole of civic society. Sadly England is no longer a Catholic (or even Christian !) country, and so our processions are rather more private and parochial. What exactly does a procession signify? It's much more than just a nice parade or a demonstration. It is a sign of the pilgrim nature of the Church to which we belong. We are a people with a Destiny; in other words, there is a purpose and direction to our lives. We were made by God "to know Him, love Him and serve Him in this life and to be happy with Him forever in the next". On any journey you need sustenance and in the same way going through life in this vale of tears we need our Blessed Lord who is the "Bread of Life"! Today's feast and procession celebrate the teaching about the Holy Mass and the Blessed Sacrament. Tolkien wrote to his son that the great love of our life should be the Blessed Sacrament. The newspapers last week reported that we will have a new saint. He was only a teenager who died of cancer named Carlo Acutis. He was born in London to Italian parents and after his first Holy Communion was given the grace to perceive and understand the Glory of what we can so easily take for granted in the Mass. He wanted to go every day. He set up a website chronicling Eucharistic miracles of the present and the past. I urge you to look these up yourselves as they are God given jumpstarts for the cold engine of today's withered faith ! Mother Mary pray for us !

Yours Sincerely, God bless you all, fr. Christopher Basden on behalf of fr. Simon Heans and fr. Ryszard Hanaczewski.
