My Dear people,

At this writing (Friday) we suddenly have a new Prime Minister, Mr. Keir Starmer. Today he is going to see the King to request permission to start a new government. Next door in France there are the winds of change as well, not to mention the USA which prepares for its onslaught in November. Politics can be such an ugly and dirty business, as it is all to do with interests (especially financial). We can be tempted to put our head in the sand, turn the television off and plug up our ears. However, Original Sin has always been with us and there have been Saints among those who are involved in governance. St. Louis King of France and St. Thomas More spring to mind. Others perhaps not saintly but decent Christians might include Jimmy Carter and Julius Nyerere from Tanzania. St. Paul tells us that we should pray for those at the helm of government and so let us pray every day for our political leaders, whether we like them or not, as they have so much responsibility for the good of others. Other things that we might pray for is for peace in the world, a way out of the bankruptcy of modern economies and demographic implosion which causes no end of problems.

Today we have our combined Mass (English & Polish at 11.00am.) and we invite you all to the BBQ outside (please God and St. Joseph weather permitting!) Fr. Simon Heans is off tomorrow and we wish him a restful holiday, after a stressful Spring! We are lucky to have the three of us here as we can take our turn and keep the place going when one is absent.

Don't forget the Patronal Feast of Our Sisters on Saturday. St. Mildred's Mass will be at 12.15pm. Our Benedictine Nuns are at the heart of our parish and we very much value their monastic life of work and prayer, especially intercession for all of us! May Our Blessed Lady obtain for us the Graces we need.

God Bless you all, fr Christopher on behalf of fr Simon and fr Ryszard
