

Pugin Week

Join us at St Augustine's Ramsgate to celebrate the life and works of Augustus Welby Pugin
All events are FREE donations appreciated

These events coincide with Heritage Open Days 2025 on the theme of Architecture

Pugin in Ramsgate: Sources and Personal Symbolism

Saturday 13th September 4 pm - 5.30pm

Art historian Jacqui Ansell gives this year's annual Pugin Lecture a richly illustrated talk followed by Q&A

Exhibition in the Cloisters: Pugin Renovations at Alton Towers

Wednesday - Thursday 10th - 11th September 12.30 pm - 3.30 pm

Friday - Sunday 12th - 14th September 10 am - 4 pm

Pugin did extensive work at Alton Towers for the Earl of Shrewsbury Learn about recent renovations

St Augustine's open 10am - 4pm Friday 12th - Sunday 14th September to coincide with The Grange open days next door

See our Pugin Archives at 2pm each day - limited places

Pugin After Dark: Tales from the Towers

Saturday 13th September 10 am St Augustine's

A virtual tour of Alton Towers with tales about his life and works followed by the Pugin tile collaborative art project

Midday Mass Saturday 13th September

St Augustines Church Ramsgate

Pugin Anniversary Traditional Latin Mass

Heritage Lottery Funded

Archdiocese of Southwark